Indigenous artist Jessica Mauboy to perform at Eurovision 2014

According to SBS, which has screened Eurovision for more than 30 years, Mauboy will be the first solo artist from outside Europe to perform on the show. Her invitation by the European Broadcasting Union and the host broadcaster, Denmark's DR, showcases the strong links between the song contest and SBS's purpose of reflecting diversity.

European Elections — Website

The European Parliament has set up a special website on the 2014 European elections, taking place on 22-25 May 2014. The website features a constantly updated news section comprising articles, press releases, background notes, slideshows and infographics. In addition, there will be relevant information on the member states in the form of data sheets with information on issues such as the economy, technology, jobs, education, environment, energy and society, offering a fully interactive, visual overview of data collected from all the countries in the EU. Finally, the website also offers information on the European political parties taking part in the election, with a short description and a link to their website.

The website can be accessed at:

Horizon 2020: funding opportunities for Australian researchers

Speakers: Professor Brett Kirk, Associate Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Research, Chair; Professor Bruce Wilson, Director, European Union Centre, RMIT University, and Australian coordinator, PASCAL International Observatory; Professor Fergal O'Gara, visiting Professor, School of Biomedical Sciences, Curtin University; Director, Biomerit Research Centre, a Biotechnology centre of excellence Cork (UCC), and Emeritus Professor of Microbiology at The National University of Ireland

Location: Building 408, Room 2038 (case study room in CBS) Curtin University, Western Australia

Horizon 2020 is the EU's new programme for research and innovation which will run from 2014 to 2020 with a budget of nearly EUR 80 billion. In comparison to FP7, Horizon 2020 is a single programme bringing together previously separate programmes/initiatives.

The relationship between the Australian Government and the European Union is strategically focussed on strengthening research and innovation collaborations to address societal (global) challenges and enhancing industrial leadership. The development of cooperation road maps with a variety of key partners is a key component of the EU's Horizon 2020 research and innovation program and forms part of the EC's International Strategy for Research and Innovation.

This presentation will include an introduction to the general context of Horizon 2020, and issues of strategy for Australian collaborators, as well as presenting specific information about Marie Curie, H2020 Calls, Knowledge and Innovation Communities (KICs) and accessing the Participants Portal

As places are limited please RSVP to Kelly Pilgrim-Byrne, k.pilgrim-byrne@curtin.edu.au

Further information on Horizon2020 is available at:

9 April 2014 – 14.00 – 16.00

Presentation on Horizon 2020—Opportunities for Australian Researchers

Speakers: Adjunct Professor Nicola Sasanelli AM, Department of the Premier and Cabinet (host); HE Mr Sem Fabrizi, Delegation of the European Union to Australia and New Zealand; Professor Don Bursill, Chief Scientist for South Australia; Mr John Tuckwell, Delegation of the European Union to Australia; Professor Peter Langridge, Australian Centre for Plant Functional Genomics; Dr Barbara Vanhoecke, Marie Curie International Fellow; Mr David Morfesi, University of Adelaide; Associate Professor Jennifer Rutherford, University of South Australia

Location: The Science Exchange 55 Exchange Place, Adelaide

Horizon 2020 is the EU's new programme for research and innovation which will run from 2014 to 2020 with a budget of nearly EUR 80 billion.

In comparison to FP7, Horizon 2020 is a single programme bringing together three separate programmes/initiatives:

- Coupling research to innovation – from research to retail, all forms of innovation
- Focus on societal challenges facing EU society, e.g. Health, clean energy and transport
- Simplified access, for all companies, universities, institutes in all EU countries and beyond

This event will provide Australian researchers with a better understanding of the structure, objectives, instruments and work programme of Horizon 2020, and how Australian researchers can participate in Horizon 2020.

A networking afternoon tea will be served after the presentations.

Please RSVP Ms Ashleigh Ridley by Friday 4 April, Ashleigh.ridley@sa.gov.au

An Asian or Multi-Polar Century: Implications for European Union- Australian Relations

Speaker: Professor Bruce Wilson, Director, European Union Centre at RMIT University

Location: Conference Room, Level 8, Exchange Plaza, 55 Sherwood Court, Perth CBD

Recent years have seen extensive public debate in Australia on the prospect of an 'Asian Century', and its implications for public policy, domestic and foreign. There are various reasons for considering this prognosis to be over-stated. Yes, Asian countries, particularly China, have had very rapid rates of growth and are of increasing importance for the Australian economy.

Yet, when put in global terms, it becomes apparent that the rising significance of Asia continues to be only one dimension of an increasingly complex pattern of global trade and political positioning. Any neglect of the continuing importance of Europe will be at considerable cost to Australia's interests.

This presentation will explore the emergence of a multi-polar global context for European Union- Australian relations, and consider some of the current strategic priorities in that relationship.

Please RSVP to Dr Alexey D Muraviev by email, a.muraviev@curtin.edu.au, or telephone, 08 9266 2234.

The 1st European Conference on Teaching and Learning Politics, International Relations and European Studies

Location: Maastricht, The Netherlands

This event, jointly organised by the British International Study Association, the European Consortium for Political Research, the Political Studies Association and the University Association for Contemporary European Studies, asks what it means to teach Politics, International Relations (IR), or European Studies (ES) to the next generation of students. What are the opportunities of educating the next generation of a knowledge society?

But also what challenges will Politics, IR and ES instructors encounter, considering the overburdening availability of (electronic) information and the growing demand for skills-based education? Next to those global trends in higher education, there are also specific features of European Higher Education that need careful consideration.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Fellowships/Scholarships

The European Union Academic Programme Hong Kong (EUAP)—Visiting Scholarship (PostDoc)—European Urban Geography

Closing date: until filled

The European Union Academic Programme Hong Kong (EUAP) is inviting applications for a Visiting Scholarship at postdoc level for research/teaching sojourns of four months duration at EUAP institutions in Hong Kong (fall/winter term 2014).

The EUAP, a consortium of four universities in Hong Kong (Hong Kong Baptist University, The University of Hong Kong, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Lingnan University), co-financed by the European Commission, is designed to strengthen EU-Hong Kong relations through academic work and enhance the understanding of the EU in Asia. It cooperates closely with diplomatic representatives of the EU and EU member states as well as European chambers of commerce and a large number of institutions in Europe.

Applications are now invited in the following area: European Urban Geography (Social, economic, cultural, intercultural aspects, emphasis on innovation concepts, urban management in large cities/urban agglomerations).

Further information is available at:

European Union Visitors Programs

Closing date: 18 April 2014

The objective of the European Union Visitors Program (EUVP) is to enable young leaders, potential leaders and multipliers from non-EU Member States to obtain first-hand impressions of the Union's policies, Institutions and achievements and to increase the mutual understanding between professionals from non-EU countries and their EU counterparts.

Jointly sponsored and administered by the European Parliament and the European Commission, the EUVP has been in operation since 1974. Australia and New Zealand have participated in the program since 1983, sending over 136 visitors to Europe during that time.

A EUVP visit consists of an individual five-to-eight day program of meetings with officials at the EU institutions in Brussels, Strasbourg and/or Luxembourg. All programs are coordinated and arranged by the EUVP Secretariat. Travel and per diem costs are covered by the EUVP.

Other

Erasmus+

Closing date: 16 March – 1 October 2014 (depending on program)

Erasmus+, the new EU program for Education, Training and Youth, brings together seven existing EU program in these fields and also provides support for Sport. As an integrated program, Erasmus+ offers more opportunities for cooperation across the Education, Training and Youth sectors and easier access than its predecessors, with simplified funding rules. The program combines all current schemes for education, training, youth and sport, including the Lifelong Learning Programme, Youth in Action and five international cooperation programs. Erasmus+ has three main targets: two-thirds of its budget is allocated to learning opportunities for individuals abroad, within the EU and beyond; the remainder will support partnerships between educational institutions, youth organisations, businesses, local and regional authorities and NGOs, and reforms to modernise education and training and promotion of innovation, entrepreneurship and employability.

As a general rule, organisations participating in Erasmus+ projects must be established in a Programme Country. However, some Actions are also open to participating organisations from Partner Countries such as Australia. The specific conditions for participating in an Erasmus+ project depend on the type of Action supported. Please consult the Erasmus+ Programme Guide for more details.

Call for proposals 2013 EU ICI-ECP Programme for Joint Mobility Projects (JMP) and Joint Degree Projects (JDP) (Reference: EACEA/24/2013)

Closing date: 15 May 2014

The Industrialised Countries Instrument (ICI) promotes co-operation between the European Union and seventeen industrialised and other high-income countries/ territories in North America, the Asia-Pacific region and the Gulf region. One of the supported specific actions promotes "people-to-people links" with the aim to enhance mutual understanding between cultures and to facilitate the exchange of knowledge. The Industrialised Countries Instrument – Education Cooperation Programme is called ICI ECP.

This EACEA 24/2013 ICI-ECP Call for Proposals supports co-operation with Australia, Japan and the Republic of Korea through Joint Degree projects (JDP) and Joint Mobility projects (JMP). Projects focus on structured exchanges of students and faculty members and development of joint or shared curricula and study programs, and the award of joint or double degrees in the case of Joint Degree projects.

All projects must address: development of innovative international curricula, student services, language and cultural preparation, organisational frameworks for student mobility and faculty members' mobility, evaluation, sustainability and dissemination.

In the case of Joint Degree Projects the Call is open to consortia of higher education institutions and in the case of Joint Mobility Projects the Call is open to consortia of higher education institutions or vocational and training institutions.

Applicants must be from one of the Partner Countries and from one of the 28 countries of the European Union. Please see the Fact sheets for more details.

Horizon 2020

Closing date: project dependent

Horizon 2020, the new EU Research and Innovation program, is a Europe 2020 flagship initiative aimed at securing Europe's global competitiveness. Funding is based on competitive calls open to everyone, also to organisations or individuals outside the EU. Participants from countries associated to the EU research framework program (i.e. countries contributing to the EU budget) have the same rights as EU participants; for other countries, the situation varies. Funding of calls in the 2014 budget is focused on the three key pillars of Horizon 2020:

- Excellent Science: Around €3 billion, including €1.7 billion for grants from the European Research Council for top scientists and €800 million for Marie Skłodowska-Curie fellowships for younger researchers (see MEMO/13/1123).
- Industrial Leadership: €1.8 billion to support Europe's industrial leadership in areas like ICT, nanotechnologies, advanced manufacturing, robotics, biotechnologies and space.
- Societal challenges: €2.8 billion for innovative projects addressing Horizon 2020's seven societal challenges, broadly: health; agriculture, maritime and bioeconomy; energy; transport; climate action, environment, resource efficiency and raw materials; reflective societies; and security.
