EU Intensive Short Course for Secondary School Teachers

Themes Covered

- A crash course in European institutions and history: What is the EU and how does it operate?
- What does the EU stand for after Brexit, and in a changing global environment?
- Beyond the Free Trade Agreement between Australia and the EU: Does Australia want closer ties with the EU?

In this course on the European Union you will hear specialists' views on these issues and engage with them in discussion of the consequences and possible solutions. Together we will examine the impact of these affairs on the EU's relationship with other nations, as EU leaders seek a stronger role in external affairs and aim to develop deeper global relationships. Australia has a stake in these matters not only in the current Free Trade Agreement with the EU, but also in working with a potentially separate UK. What might all of this mean for our region?
